Eileen,

I will call you about this. Apparently the mayor of Kalamazoo received commitments from Congressman Upton and Senator Levin that they will tour the site.

Hi Doug,

As I believe you're aware, the City of Kalamazoo, MI, is pushing EPA to dig up all the PCB-contaminated wastes at the Allied Landfill, one of the OUs of the Allied Paper/Portage Creek/Kalamazoo River site. According to a recent news article, the mayor was in DC recently and spoke with EPA officials. Do you know who the mayor might have spoken with? We were not aware of this until we saw the news clip (see link below).

Thanks in advance for any info you can provide!

Joan and Becky,

According to this article, Mayor Hopewell spoke with EPA officials recently. Have either of you heard about this? Who might he have talked to?
